

Please don't let new LPFM stations have priority over established FM translator services. I listen to KLOVE in my area and it is the only station I can receive of this type. This station is an asset to the community and in addition to unique programming it also offers aid to the community in the form of counseling and help for those in need.

Thanks you for your time.
Loren Hunt, AD6ZJ